

Assessment guide for children with additional needs or working significantly below

Assessment policies are currently under review, once new policy and approach has been approved, we will publish the full guide.

In the meantime, if you have any questions about assessment for children with additional needs, please contact the school SENCO, or refer to your child's learning plan (if applicable) for latest assessment information.

